

I'm writing to urge the FCC to reject the National Association of Broadcaster's petition 04-160. I am an XM radio subscriber in Boston and have found the local traffic information that XM recently began providing to be a useful addition to the XM service. The signal quality and variety provided by XM far exceeds anything found on local radio here.